HAY PARTY IS HELD UP

The town of Hill Top on last Friday week, was thrown in a whirl of excitement by a daring hold up. It seems that a party of Glen Jean people composed of young gentlemen and ladies of that place, were out enjoying a hay ride, and on their return home about ten o'clock in the night, as they were passing through Hill Top, the hay riding party were halted by a vicious looking man, who grabbed the horses and with pistol pointed at the head of the driver and the occupant of the front seat, demanded all to throw up their hands. The ladies in the party began to scream and immediately began hiding their valuables in the hay in the bottom of the wagon, while the men offered everything to the bold highwayman, if he would let them proceed in peace, and not molest the ladies, but the robber insisted on all in the wagon landing, so they were compelled to get out and stand in line, and as they thought, submit to being relieved of their valuables. Visions of western bandits and the cruel manner in which they treated their prey were uppermost in the minds of the fair sex as they were commanded to line up in the middle of the road, thoughts of deep caves and dark recesses in which they would be held for ransom began to form in their minds, when the holdup man relieved the strain by telling them that he was the town marshal and that all of them were under arrest for fast driving in the town limits. It is rumored that the marshal proceeded to collect, but the gentlemen in the party insisted on all being brought before the mayor, and letting him decide their fate. This the marshal finally consented to and Mayor Johnson, seeing the crestfallen look of his prisoners, reprimanded his marshal, and told the party to proceed on their way, which they did with much rejoicing and thanks to the gallant mayor of Hill Top.—Fayette Sun.

TAGGART WINS IN FIRST BOUT

PAOLI, IND., July 17.—Judge Buskirk to-day in his decision sustained the demurrer of Thomas Taggart and the other defendants, which meant that the receiver will be appointed for the French Lick Hotel at this time Attorney General Miller immediately gave notice of an appeal to the state supreme court.

PAOLI, IND., July 16.—At the close of a heated and bitter argument Judge Buskirk announced that some time today he will render a decision on the demurrer of the defense to the complaint of the state for appointment of temporary receiver for the Taggart and Sinclair Hotel Companies in the French Lick valley and for a temporary injunction against gambling there.

While Judge Buskirk has given no intimation of what his decision will be it is generally believed here that the defendants will win, either on their demurrer or on the hearing of the complaint. Attorney-General Miller in closing indicated very plainly that if the state is defeated here the case will be appealed immediately to the Supreme Court.
 Mr. Miller insisted that under the law the prosecutor of Orange county was the proper relator and urged the sufficiency of the grounds for the state's demands for a temporary receiver for the hotel properties.
